Bass player Lou Gottlieb from The Limelighters buys his 30+ acre retreat north of San Francisco intending to develop it into high-end suburbia in the '60's. However, it seems the land has ideas of its own and when hippies show up, some neighbors and Sonoma County officials get in the way of this ecotopia in Nicholas Alva's MorningStar, an original play with music and dance based on actual events from Sonoma County history. Directed by Michael Fontaine. Performances May 3-18, Spreckels Performing Arts Center, Bette Condiotti Theatre, 5409 Snyder, Rohnert Park, CA. Please call (707) 588-3400 to purchase tickets. $16 general, $14 for students, seniors and group rate.
